Happy Chanukah from

Dear Friends,

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a happy Chanukah and joyful holiday season. As you read this message, we hope you will be encouraged to know that your support of Yad LaKashish is helping transform the lives of hundreds of low income lonely elderly, by making them productive and creative members of our community and the wider society.

Our services and embracing community is so much more viable now, with the recent precarious security situation prevailing. We have taken additional measures to ensure that our workshops are secure, and that only approved visitors enter our property.

Our elderly continue to come to work daily, using the public transportation, teaching us the power of hope and perseverance in the face of adversity.

We are grateful for your help in enabling us to bring the lights of Chanukah to their lives all year around. We wish you all a safe, healthy and joyful upcoming year!

Yad LaKashish presents at the USCJ convention in Chicago

Thanks to our dear loyal supporters and volunteers, Yad LaKashish had a booth at the USCJ convention in Chicago where we sold and displayed many of the beautiful works of art created by our elderly artisans. We shared our unique Tzedakah message with the many delegates, who purchased our handmade items and learned about our mission. It was a great success!

A heartfelt thanks goes to all the Yad LaKashish volunteers and benefactors at the convention!

Renovations

We are about to begin the renovation of our recently purchased apartment and connect it to our existing complex. The apartment, which is in a 150 year old building, will eventually accommodate 30 elderly artisans. We will gut it and replace the entire infrastructure, adding much needed amenities, new doors and windows, a whitewash of paint, a new electricity system, a new water system, and a new heating and cooling system. Stay tuned for updates!

Yad LaKashish at the Organization of teachers and research students at the Hebrew University back-to-school event

Yad LaKashish was invited by M.O.A.H., the organization of teachers and research students at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, who purchased several hundred handmade gifts from Yad LaKashish to distribute among the participants of their back-to-school event. Manning the Yad LaKashish booth was our lovely volunteer from New York, as part of a Bat Mitzva project.

We are excited to unveil a new line of products in our gift shop in time for Chanukah
